ACQUERA YACHTING EXPANDS TO ISTANBUL WITH A NEW STRATEGIC OFFICE IN THE EASTERN MEDITERRANEAN

Acquera Yachting has opened a new office in Istanbul, reinforcing its presence in one of the most dynamic hubs of the Eastern Mediterranean. This expansion strengthens the company's international network and underscores its commitment to delivering tailor-made services and dedicated assistance across the world's leading yachting destinations.

Istanbul's unique geographical position, world-class maritime infrastructure, and growing prominence in the global nautical sector make it a preferred destination for yacht owners, charter guests, captains, and industry professionals. The new office enhances Acquera Yachting's ability to provide highly personalized services, exclusive experiences, and prompt operational support throughout the region.

"Our new office in Istanbul marks an important milestone in Acquera Yachting's growth strategy," says Muhteşem Ar, Turkey Managing Director. "Istanbul offers exceptional connectivity, a rapidly evolving yachting ecosystem, and access to an increasingly international clientele. Our presence here strengthens operational efficiency and service responsiveness, positioning Acquera Yachting as a leading partner across Turkey and the Eastern Mediterranean."

Strategically located near the Pendik shipyards and Viaport Marina, and just 25 minutes from Sabiha Gökçen International Airport, the office ensures rapid accessibility and immediate support for technical, operational, and logistical needs.

Istanbul is also home to world-class Turkish shipyards, renowned for their advanced facilities and skilled craftsmanship. Offering comprehensive refit and maintenance services, particularly during the winter season, these shipyards provide reliable year-round solutions that keep yachts in peak condition. Their reputation for quality and efficiency makes Istanbul an ideal base for long-term care and technical support.

Beyond its maritime advantages, Istanbul itself is a fantastic city to visit, offering an unrivalled blend of culture, history, and luxury experiences that captivate owners, guests, and crew alike.

With this new office, Acquera Yachting continues to deliver seamless management of clearance procedures, regulatory formalities, provisioning, and logistics—allowing owners, crew, and guests to focus entirely on enjoying their journey and discovering the destination.
