

MGM Boats Joins Majesty Yachts' European Dealer Network

Majesty is pleased to announce the appointment of MGM Boats as its official dealer in Ireland, strengthening the brand's presence across a key European boating market and expanding client access to its portfolio of luxury yachts and superyachts.

The appointment brings Majesty closer to clients in Ireland through one of the country's most established marine businesses. With decades of experience in yacht sales, brokerage, after-sales support and marine services, MGM Boats will represent Majesty, supporting prospective owners with local market knowledge and a highly personalised ownership journey.

Alina Neagu, Sales Manager at Gulf Craft, said: "Majesty continues to grow its presence across Europe through carefully selected partners who understand both the product and the expectations of today's yacht owners. MGM Boats brings strong market knowledge, a trusted reputation and a hands-on approach to client service in Ireland, making them a natural partner for the brand. We look forward to working closely with Gerry Salmon and his team as we introduce Majesty to an ever-widening audience."

Gerry Salmon, Managing Director of MGM Boats, added: "MGM Boats Ireland are delighted to announce our partnership with Majesty yachts. The incredible development with the brand over the past number of years along with insight in their future plans and investments was the main factor in MGM Boats choosing Majesty for our clients."

Through this appointment, Majesty continues to expand its international dealer network, reinforcing its commitment to working with experienced local partners who can offer clients in-depth product knowledge, market insight and technical support.
